

Educational Dinner Event

Saturday, October 29th, 2022

Boulevard Kitchen and Oyster Bar

845 Burrard Street
Vancouver, BC

(3 blocks from the St. Paul's Hospital Conference Centre)

AstraZeneca US and Canadian Oncology present a hosted non-branded educational dinner event during the PNWSP Fall Meeting

Rationale for Homologous Recombination Repair (HRR) Gene Mutations and Homologous Recombination Deficiency (HRD) Testing in Select Cancers

Presented by: Jeffrey Gregg, MD – Molecular Pathologist: Director of Pathology – California Northstate University School of Medicine, Sacramento, CA: Senior Vice-President, Clinical Science and Innovation – Harbinger Oncology

and

A Pathologist's View on a New Treatment Option for HER2 Expression in Metastatic Breast Cancer

Presented by: Zin Htway, PHD, MBA – Cytotechnologist: Supervisor Anatomic Pathology Department; Laboratory Team Leader; Research Oversight Committee, Administrative Chair – Los Robles Hospital and Medical Center, Thousand Oaks, CA.

Itinerary

5:30pm - Registration/Check-in

6:00 pm – Dr. Gregg presentation

7:00 pm – Dr. Htway presentation

RSVP to Paul Gobel, Sr. Precision Medicine Manager, AstraZeneca US Oncology at paul.gobel@astrazeneca.com or by phone at 1-206-446-8055 (attendance will be limited to the first 25 RSVP's because of space limitations).

